KANSAS CITY, MO – Garden Weasel today announced that it will sponsor the Inventor's Spotlight area of the 2009 National Hardware Show, which will be held at the Las Vegas Convention Center, on May 5th to 7th.

Faultless Inventors was a 2008 sponsor of the United Inventors Association at the Las Vegas National Hardware Show. Garden Weasel, powered by Faultless Inventors, will be the exclusive manufacturing sponsor in 2009.

"Companies who market hardware have a growing interest in inventions and the inventor community, and the Inventor's Spotlight at the National Hardware Show is a unique showcase for the interaction between inventors and marketers who exhibit," said Web Thompson, Vice-President of Sales for Garden Weasel. "Exhibiting inventors will receive an invitation to pitch their inventions to the Garden Weasel film crew in a private meeting room during show hours.

Garden Weasel has been active in licensing inventions for many years and hosts an invention website at www.FaultlessInventors.com. Additionally it supports the United Inventors Association, <http://www.uiausa.org/> and for the past several years, has held national annual invention contests in Kansas City: <http://www.InventorsClubofKC.org/>.

Garden Weasel invites trade guests and inventors to visit their booth, #68045, at the National Hardware Show.

Inventors wishing to exhibit in the Inventor Spotlight areas of the convention, should contact John Lederer at Reed Expo; the management company that runs the National Hardware Show. John can be reached at (203) 840-5381 or at jlederer@reedexpo.com.
